Sardar Patel Marg, New Delhi-110021
Ph: 011 66503890

Renuka's art is the continuation of her journey of exploring the relation between the human and nature, interpersonal relations and the triumphant spirit of the woman. She holds her own, overcoming all obstacles and emerges the stronger for it. Renuka depicts remarkable versatility in her new series. The content of her work has been gradually changing. An important observation in Renuka's work is the portrayal of the female form "They are important in maintaining the balance in environment, society or emotions", she says. Being a woman, she understands the contribution a female makes to the world and this is what she expresses in an artistic way, unique in style. She really enjoys working in clay.
